Background

What college-level math or computer science courses have you taken, if any?

Do you have any experience with computer programming, and if so, how much? (No such experience is expected or needed.)

What would you say is your primary reason for taking this class?

What do you expect or hope to get out of CS 150?

The Important Stuff

What great movies/books/games/albums/shows have you seen/read/played/heard/watched recently?

If you were an animal, what animal would you be? Be honest.

If you were allowed to pick 3 places in the world to which you (and you alone) could instantly teleport whenever you pleased, where would they be?

Tell me two interesting things about yourself.
